

FANS PACK COURT FOR REAL LIFE ACT BY MARY AND DOUG

You Can Look at the Lady, She Smiles, Awaiting Hearing of $108,000 Suit.

Movie fans crowded outside the pore of Judge Mack's court room in the Federal Building to-day.
They pushed. They lifted themselves on their toes. They craned their necks. They strained their eyes.
Inside sat Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks.

Attendants shooed and shoved back the scores who could not enter the court room.
"This ain't no picture show," they outed. "This is a court room." Miss Pickford had come down to attend the suit brought more than a year ago by Mrs. Cora Clara Wilkening, who asks $108,000 damages for an alleged breach of contract. Mrs.
Wilkening, a play broker, says she got Mary a two-year contract in 1916 with Adolph Zukor for $1,000,000 and that she was entitled to 10 per cent. of her work. There have been two trials. Mary winning on an appeal in the Supreme Court.

When Mary and Doug appeared at 3:30 o'clock they were not only followed by a great crowd from their machine, but dozens of doors flew open and emptied employees of the building—stenographers, clerks and even Assistant District Attorneys, such as could and had nothing more pressing to do crowded into the court room.

Judge Mack had to caution them to keep quiet. Later, after order was restored and dozens of women were seated waiting for the hearing to begin and staring meanwhile at Mary, who seemed oblivious to it all, the judge looked at them with a smile and said:

"You people are wasting a lot of time here. The case probably won't be called till this afternoon. If then, of course, if you want to look at the lady, you're welcome."
All the women and some men flushed. Mary smiled. Everybody ayed.

APPOINT RECEIVER FOR STOCKBROKERS

Bankruptcy Proceedings Begun Against Kohler-Bremer
Company.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed to-day against Arthur W. Kohler and Lawrence H.
Bremer, No. 32 Broadway, stock brokers on the Consolidated Exchange, where they are listed as Kohler-Bremer & Co. Liabilities are given as $500,000 and assets $150,000, including $75,000 of "quick assets."
The Gilbert O'Farrell Printing Company, petitioner, alleges that the defendants furnished stock exchange wire service removed on Feb. 17.
Their claim is for $816. Lee Bondy, counsel for the firm, said that the recent death of Senator Emerson, a special partner, had been followed by a shrinkage in the firm's business.

He also blamed the "general depression." Arthur F. Gotthold was appointed receiver by Judge Learned Hand.

CHILD SHOT ACCIDENTALLY BY HIS BROTHER.

Charles Hatzel, six years old, of Michigan Avenue, Kenilworth, Ill., both, N. J., was probably mortally injured to-day when a rifle which his brother Roy, twelve years old, was cleaning, accidentally went off, in front of their home. The bullet hit the younger boy over the heart. He was taken to the Elizabeth General Hospital.

HIT ON HEAD AND KILLED BY ELEVATOR.

John Kutch, eighteen, of No. 501 West 45th Street, was killed to-day when an empty elevator struck him on the head while he was leaning over the shaftway gate at No. 615 West 40th Street. The identity of the person who started the elevator is unknown.

FORCE 500 TO TAKE MONTH OFF, NO PAY

Immigration Employees Protest at Prescribed Vacation.

Five hundred employees of the Federal immigration station were notified to-day that between now and July 1 each of them must take a month's vacation without pay. The letters, signed by Commissioner Robert E. Toth, state that the step has been found necessary because of "a deficit in the appropriation."

The persons affected range from inspectors down to the cleaning women at Ellis Island. There were many expressions of bitter protest, especially because of a provision that the month shall not be taken in one stretch but in two periods of two weeks each and at prescribed times. This prevents their getting other jobs for a month.
